

CHAMBER'S STUDY GROUP AT PUNE

The Chamber of Tax Consultants is pleased to announce formation of a new Study Group at Pune for the benefit of its members in and around Pune City. The purpose of the Study Group is to enable the members to have discussion based learning on variety of topics including Direct Tax, Indirect Tax, International Tax and also Allied Laws. The Study Group will have at least one meeting in a month and will try to cover the topics as per the suggestions from the members based at Pune. The meeting of the Study Group may have one or more speakers / group leaders depending on the subject involved.

INITIATIVE

Eminent faculties including the faculties from Mumbai will be travelling to Pune for this group and will be addressing the Study Group. The discussion at the Study Group will focus on various day-to-day issues being faced by the professionals and will cater to the needs of the professionals as may arise from time to time.

To start with, the Study Group meetings for January 2018 to March 2018 can be attended by interested members by paying fees for each such meeting. The Fees for each meeting will be ₹ 400/- + GST = ₹ 472/- for members and ₹ 500/- + GST = ₹ 590/- for Non-members in this initial period. The Chamber proposes to start annual membership for the group from April 2018 onwards. The yearly membership fee is being finalised and the same will be informed in due course.

The Chamber firmly believes that the members at Pune will take the maximum advantage of this new Study group.

The members interested to join the above study group are requested to inform about their willingness to join by sending an e-mail to: office@ctconline.org or talk to Mr. Sachin Sastakar (Mobile: +91-9890823711) in the Chamber's office. The meeting for the month of January 2018 will be finalised soon and the details for the same will be informed to the members in due course.
