One of the major measures recently introduced by the Government is to provide a Dispute Resolution Scheme for quick closure of the existing litigation under Indirect Taxes mainly, Service Tax and Central Excise and Allied Laws.

The Chamber as part of its regular interactive dissemination of knowledge in the field of taxes had organized a workshop on 07.09.2019 on such Scheme where various leading professionals emanated knowledge on the Scheme and various questions/issues/concerns were discussed. We hereby wish to provide before your good office the questions/issues/concerns discussed in the said workshop. The copies of questions/issues/concerns are enclosed along with this letter. Also, the detailed booklet circulated in the workshop is also enclosed. Although FAQ's and Circular explaining the Scheme have been released and taken cognizance while deliberating the various aspects of the Scheme, there are various questions/issues/concerns which need to be clarified for successful implementation of the Scheme.

We request your good office to consider the above issues and if deem fit to issue clarifications on the matter by way of FAQ's. If required we can explain the questions/issues/concerns in more detail in person.

Thanking You,

Sincerely yours,

For THE CHAMBER OF TAX CONSULTANTS
