Respected Sir,

Sub.: - Feedback on draft Overseas Investment rules & regulations

This has reference to following two documents placed on RBI's website for comments:

1. Draft Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments - Overseas Investment) Rules, 2021; and
2. Draft Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Regulations, 2021

As called for by way of Press release dated 9th August 2021, we take this opportunity to make certain important suggestions to the above-mentioned drafts for clarifying certain ambiguities so that the revised Overseas Investment Regulations meet the intended objectives of the Government.

There are many path-breaking amendments and liberalisations. There are hence a few suggestions to be provided too. However, considering the short 15 day period provided for feedback, we request RBI to extend the deadline and provide another 15 days for providing more suggestions on the draft regulations. Alternatively, a revised draft considering suggestions received till 23rd August should be provided for public feedback to ensure full implementation of Government and RBI's intentions.

Further, under the existing Overseas Direct Investment regulations, RBI has issued several FAQs addressing various queries of stakeholders. We humbly suggest to issue draft FAQs and draft format of applicable Forms under the proposed regulations for public feedback before issuing final Rules and Regulations.

We sincerely request a personal meeting – physical or virtual - to explain the suggestions put forth in the document.

For Bombay Chartered Accountants' Society,

Representation on Draft FEM (Non-debt instruments – Overseas Investment), Rules 2021 ('ODI Rules') and Draft FEM (Overseas Investment) Regulations, 2021 ('OI Regulations')

Sr. No.	Heading	Relevant clause of Rules / Regulation	Provision and Issues	Rationale and suggestion
1.	Definition Overseas Direct Investment read with Schedule III	Rule 2(vii) under Chapter I of ODI Rules	Provision (Extract) “Overseas Direct Investment (ODI)” means investment by way of acquisition of equity capital of an unlisted foreign entity, or subscription to the Memorandum of Association of a foreign entity, or investment in ten percent or more of the paid-up equity capital of a listed foreign entity, or where the person resident in India making such investment has or acquires control, directly or indirectly, in the foreign entity..... Schedule III	Rationale: The first part of the definition of ODI can be split into the following four limbs: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(1) investment by way of acquisition of equity capital of an unlisted foreign entity, or</li> <li>(2) subscription to the Memorandum of Association of a foreign entity, or</li> <li>(3) investment in ten percent or more of the paid-up equity capital of a listed foreign entity, or</li> <li>(4) where the person resident in India making such investment has or acquires control, directly or indirectly, in the foreign entity.</li> </ol> As can be seen from above, limb (4) has two conditions for an investment to qualify as an ODI. A person resident in India should be making such investment and in addition should acquire control,

			Overseas Investment by Resident Individuals 2. A resident individual may make or hold Overseas Investment in a foreign entity by way of: (i) ODI only in an operating foreign entity not engaged in financial services activity, provided such individual also acquires control, directly or indirectly, in such foreign entity. If one was to give a meaning to the words such investment, it would mean investment as referred under limbs (1), (2) and (3) above. In case such an interpretation is adopted, an investment falling within (1), (2) and (3) already qualifies as an ODI (with or without control). Accordingly, limb (4) becomes redundant. Further, a plain reading of limb (1) suggests that acquisition of equity capital (from Zero to 100%) of unlisted foreign entity would be regarded as ODI. If this is read with Schedule III – Clause (2)(i), a resident individual would not be allowed to make any investment in a foreign entity if he does not acquire control in such foreign entity (except in case of acquisition of less than 10% stake in a listed entity). This seems to override the permissibility of making portfolio investments into foreign entities which is presently available to resident individual under the Liberalised Remittance Scheme. Suggestion Exclude equity stake upto 10%, without acquiring control, from the definition of ODI. Consequently, equity stake upto 10% (without acquisition of control) can get included under the definition of

			SDS shall comply with the requirements of a foreign entity as prescribed in rule 2(vii). Explanation: (a) For this clause, a subsidiary would not include an entity in which the foreign entity holds equity capital in the nature of listed securities and not exceeding 10% of the paid-up capital of the investee entity. (b) A subsidiary of an SDS will also be an SDS. Issue The definition in the draft OI Rules means that if the foreign entity has invested less than 50% and does not have control, it does not have to comply with ODI rules.	(ii) exercises or controls more than one-half of the total share capital either at its own or together with one or more of its subsidiary companies: In practice, under the existing regulations, if the foreign entity which has ODI, invests in a Step down entity, FEMA compliance has to be undertaken. Step down entity need not be a subsidiary. This was clear from the use of the terminology “Joint Venture” as distinguished from a “Wholly Owned Subsidiary”. These terms do not find place in the draft OI Regulations and hence the concern regarding the use of the word ‘subsidiary’. The definition in the draft OI Rules means that if the foreign entity has invested less than 50% and does not have control, it does not have to comply with ODI rules. Consider a case where Indian resident has Overseas investment in a foreign company. The foreign company further invests only 25% in the step down entity. Such an entity does not fall within meaning of ‘subsidiary’ and hence is not a ‘step down subsidiary’ as per draft

8.	Round Tripping	Rule 6(3) of Old Rules	"The Financial Commitment by a person resident in India in a foreign entity that has invested or invests into India, at the time of making such Financial Commitment or at any time thereafter, either directly or indirectly, which is designed for the purpose of tax evasion/ tax avoidance by such person is not permitted and any contravention under this rule shall be considered to be a contravention of serious/sensitive nature."	Rationale: At the outset, the proposal from the RBI to not explicitly prohibit round-tripping of investments is welcome. It is in line with the current business outlook and will benefit Indian businesses. Also, "tax-evasion" is a legitimate concern from the RBI and is now well addressed (compared to previous decade) due to the following significant changes -  a) Introduction of General anti-avoidance rules in India since 2017; b) Modification of Indian tax treaties (such as Mauritius, Cyprus, Singapore) from 2017 due to which capital gains would be taxable in India; c) Implementation of BEPS Minimum Standards by India pursuant to OECD's global efforts since 2020; d) Likely introduction of Global Minimum tax under OECD's Pillar 2 proposals wherein India is actively participating (likely from 2021) e) Introduction of automatic exchange of information wherein India is an active party.

				Determination of "tax evasion/ tax avoidance" (unless reported by the Investor itself) is a very subjective and long-drawn process involving tax authorities and Courts. At the same time, the business needs to have certainty while making an ODI about feasibility under FEMA. What is tax avoidance and tax evasion can be determined by the Income-tax department only after the transaction takes place and income-tax assessment has happened. At the time of undertaking the transaction, it is not possible to conclude whether the transaction is for tax avoidance or evasion. Recommendation: Kindly note we are not supporting income-tax evasion and avoidance. We are only stating that for violation of tax law only income-tax department may be the regulator. In order to provide more certainty and clarity at the time of making a decision for outbound investment, we suggest that RBI may issue an FAQ on the same lines as provided in the Standard Operating Procedure of DPIIT:

				“Claim of any tax relief under the Income-tax Act, 1961 or the relevant DTAA will be examined independently by the tax authorities to determine the eligibility and extent of such relief and the approval of ABC Deptt. by itself will not amount to any recognition of eligibility for giving such relief.” As an alternative to our suggestion in para 1.3.1, we suggest that if there is any Round Tripping investment, the Indian investor should report the same to RBI, and RBI may report the matter to Income-tax department. Then let income-tax department decide whether it wants to investigate further.
