ACHIEVEMENTS AND HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE YEAR 2023-24

The Chamber of Tax Consultants is proud to present the significant accomplishments and milestones achieved over the past year. Our efforts have been driven by a commitment to excellence, knowledge sharing, and professional growth.

Core Education Activity: The Chamber has significantly expanded its educational initiatives by hosting a wide range of programs and events across multiple cities in India, not just in Mumbai. These activities, detailed throughout this report, have broadened our reach and amplified our impact on the professional community.

Advocacy: The Chamber effectively represented members and taxpayers before Government and Regulatory Authorities, ensuring professionals rely on us to address grievances and, when necessary, escalate issues legally.

Moot Court Competitions: The inaugural national-level Indirect Tax Moot Court Competition on GST, held with ILS Law College, Pune, which recently celebrated its centenary and graced by Hon'ble Justices Prithviraj Chavan and Neela Kedar Gokhale, showcased exceptional student talent and set high standards.

Enhanced Diversity and Participation: Appointing a non-Mumbai leader to the Journal committee broadened the Chamber's reach, increasing state representation and new authors. This strategic move expanded Outstation contributors from 40 to 65, elevating journal quality and enhancing the Chamber's reputation.

Innovative Topics: The Chamber's Journal pioneered by covering unconventional topics like "Tax Spin on Sporting Events," "Financial Instruments," "Agriculture," and "State Incentives," distinguishing itself with diverse, innovative publications unmatched by other institutions.

Centenary Year Preparation: Initiated leadership selection for the Chamber's 100th year by consulting senior past presidents. The Centenary Committee is planning programs and activities for a memorable and impactful celebration.

Residential Refresher Courses (RRCs): Conducted four acclaimed RRCs with record registrations: Direct Tax at Agra (335), International Tax (291*) at Gandhinagar, FEMA (160) at Ahmedabad, and Indirect Tax (243) at Jaipur. Featured high participation from outside Mumbai, increased lady participation, and active young participants. [*up to June 12, 2024]

Offsite Managing Council Meeting: This year, after a gap of more than 20 years, the Chamber conducted an outstation overnight Managing Council meeting on the outskirts of Mumbai. This self-contributory retreat saw active participation and majority attendance, including family members strengthened Council bonds through professional discussions and personal connections in a relaxed setting.

Chamber's Premises Renovation: The Chamber is renovating the current premises into a state-of-the-art, fully digital conference facility. The newly acquired adjacent premises will serve as the administrative office, enhancing operational efficiency and modernizing our infrastructure.

Administrative Restructuring: Implemented crucial administrative restructuring, including reorganizing roles and responsibilities within the workforce. By optimizing our existing resources and implementing strategic cost-saving measures, we achieved significant long-term savings while maintaining high efficiency and productivity.

Enhanced Digital Presence: Recognizing the importance of social media in today's landscape, the RRC Committee was specifically tasked with enhancing the Chamber's digital presence across all major platforms. This initiative significantly improved the Chamber's visibility and engagement in the digital world.

Student Committee Vibrancy: The Student Committee remained vibrant, organizing impactful events like the Dastur Debate and Essay Competitions, Mediation Training with Pravin Gandhi College of Law, and the 1st National Indirect Tax Moot Court Competition with ILS Law College, Pune. Initiatives included the International Taxation Course for Beginners, Certificate Course on Direct Tax with GLC, Mumbai, Certificate Course on GST. Events like Udaan - Chat Show with Stalwarts of Various Professions and collaborations with prestigious institutions highlighted their dedication to student engagement and professional development.

Joint Programs with Sister Organizations: Organized impactful joint programs with IMC, BCAS, WIRC of ICAI, GSTPM, and AIFTP (WZ), including seminars on "The Art of Representation" and the Union Budget's impact on the capital market. Engaged with Tax Bar Association Amravati and Vidarbha Tax Practitioners' Association Nagpur on Direct Taxes and tax planning. These collaborations enhanced knowledge sharing and professional growth.

Joint Programs with Taxman: Collaborated with the reputed publisher Taxman to organize the first-ever joint free webinars, reaching a vast audience and enhancing the Chamber's vision and popularity among Taxman's extensive membership.

Valued Chamber's Publications: The Chamber's valued publications include "FEMA for Individuals," launched at the 2nd FEMA RRC in Ahmedabad on December 15, 2023, and "Charitable Trust – Law & Procedure," released at the 47th Direct Taxes RRC in Agra on February 29, 2024. Both received great acclaim. Upcoming publications on Overseas Investments (Practical Insights on Regulatory Aspects under FEMA and Reassessment will further enrich our library.

Community Outreach: Published articles written by Chamber members in the Gujarati newspaper 'Vyapar,' significantly benefiting the wider community and enhancing our outreach and impact.

Boosting Chambers Journal Subscribership: On a non-commercial basis, Taxmann has agreed to feature a dedicated CTC Corner on their website, showcasing the index of the prevailing month's Chambers Journal along with the executive summary of each article, with a link to our CTC website. This initiative enhances CTC's visibility and reach within the legal community. Additionally, the last six-month index, including a search engine for all issues of the Chambers Journal for FY 2020-21 and 2021-22, will guide visitors to our website for subscriptions. This collaboration will assist in Chamber's pursuit of knowledge dissemination, attracting a broader audience and solidifying our presence in legal insights.

These accomplishments reflect Chamber's dedication to advancing the field of tax consultancy and supporting our members through innovative programs, strategic initiatives, and collaborative efforts. The Chamber of Tax Consultants continues to set high standards of excellence, ensuring growth and professional development for all its members.

MANAGING COUNCIL'S REPORT 2023-24

Dear Members,

On behalf of the Managing Council, I am honored to present the 97th Annual Report of The Chamber of Tax Consultants for the year 2023-2024 (up to June 12, 2024) along with the Audited Accounts for the Financial Year 2023-24. This year has marked a period of substantial growth, innovation, and strategic accomplishments for the Chamber. Our commitment to excellence in education, advocacy, and professional development has driven us to new heights, with impactful programs and initiatives reaching members across India.

We have broadened our horizons through diverse collaborations, enhanced our digital presence, and implemented significant administrative and infrastructural reforms. These efforts have not only strengthened our foundation but also positioned us as a forward-thinking leader in the field of tax consultancy.

The unwavering support and dedication of our office bearers, Managing Council members, Past Presidents, committee chairpersons and all our core group members have been pivotal in realizing our ambitious goals. Their collaborative spirit and tireless efforts have been the bedrock of our success, enabling us to navigate challenges and seize opportunities with resilience and innovation.

As we stand on the cusp of our centenary year, we look forward to continuing our mission with renewed vigor and a steadfast commitment to excellence. Thank you for your continued trust and support.

1. FEMA for Individual – A Day to Day Practice

It was jointly with Research and Publication Committee. The authors of the publications were Mr. Paresh Shah and Ms. Tanvi Vora. This publication was released on 15th December, 2023 during 2nd RRC on FEMA at Ahmedabad.

7.7 INTERNATIONAL TAX JOURNAL COMMITTEE

The Committee functioned under the Chairmanship Mr. Paresh Shah, Convenors Mr. Kartik Mehta & Mr. Tushar Desai. Mr. Nishith Desai & Mr. T. P. Ostwal acted as advisors to the Committee.

The Chamber's International Tax Journal is in the 7th year of publication and has achieved an enviable readership and reputation. It has been a path-breaking effort in bringing our esteemed readers the very latest developments in international taxation.

Paresh Shah
Chairman

For Editions of current year 2023-24 i.e. of Volume VII, based on detailed deliberations and feed-back from the committee members, we have continued on the various changes to the structure and design of the Journal and have also focused on improvement in the content, coverage and quality.

The Sept. 2023 Edition (No. 1 Vol. VII) was focused exclusively on the International Financial Services Centre i.e. IFSC in GIFT City. It provided comprehensive coverage of the features, incentives, tax, law and regulatory aspects of the new IFSC. It explained the path-breaking initiatives of the Govt. of India on the GIFT City and the various regulatory measures by the IFSC Authority.

The Dec. 2023 Edition (No. 2 Vol. VII) was dedicated to the complex and contemporary theme of Succession Planning covering different structures such as Wills, Trusts (domestic and cross-border), Gifts, Family Settlement and LLP/Firm legal and regulatory aspects under Indian Tax law, SEBI and FEMA. It also succinctly explained the Hague Trust Convention which established a harmonized framework for determining the applicable law to international trusts and governs their cross-border recognition and cooperation. Finally, the U.S. Estate and Gift Tax Rules and the implications thereunder while planning for succession as well as succession planning in U.A.E. was adequately discussed.

The March 2024 Edition (No. 3 Vol. VII) -publication exclusively discusses and analyses international landmark jurisprudence of global significance with unique India perspective of such international court decisions. The international rulings include a wide range of complex matters such as Substance over form, GAAR, Re-characterisation, tax avoidance and tax anti-abuse doctrine, Beneficial ownership, Tax Treaty interpretation, Cost contribution arrangements, Intangibles, Control Premium, etc.

In the June 2024 Edition (No. 4 Vol. VII) – In this Publication focus is on providing comprehensive knowledge of International Tax developments in important Jurisdictions.

A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of preparation of financial statements :

The Balance Sheet and Income and Expenditure Accounts are prepared to comply with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India to the extent applicable to The Chamber.

These financial statements are prepared under the 'Historical Cost Convention' on accrual basis.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements are in conformity with significant accounting policies which requires that the management of the Trust make estimates and assumptions that affects the reported amounts of income and expenditure of the reporting period and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as on the reporting date. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognised prospectively in the current and future periods.

2. Fixed Assets:

Fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition, less accumulated depreciation. The cost of fixed assets includes the purchase cost of fixed assets and any other directly attributable costs of bringing the assets to their working condition for the intended use.

3. Depreciation:

Depreciation on fixed assets has been provided on written down value in the manner and at the rates prescribed under the Income-Tax Act,1961.

4. Investments:

Investments are stated at cost.

Provision for diminution in the value of long-term investments is made only if such a decline is other than temporary.

5. Inventories:

Publications, if any, held at the end of the year are valued at lower of cost or net realisable value.

6. Patron, Life Membership and Admission Fees:

Patron membership fees, Life membership fees and Admission fees are credited to Corpus Fund of the Trust on the date of admission.

Revenue recognition

Annual Membership fees also include subscription towards The Chamber's Journal & since no specific apportionment of the same is possible, the same is shown under the head Membership fees.

Income from investments is recognized on accrual basis based on time proportion taking into account the amount deployed and applicable interest rates.

Revenue from events / programmes is recognised on the commencement of the program/event for which the fees is received.

Revenue from other receipts, including Advertisement & Sponsorship, if any, is recognised when the associated obligation is performed and right to receive money is established

Earmarked and Other Funds

'Donation received with specific directions are credited directly to the Earmarked & Other Funds in the balance sheet.

Income from earmarked investments and expenditure on such activities are adjusted to specific earmarked activity funds.

Income Tax

The Chamber is registered under Sections 12A of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Under the provisions of this Act, the income of the Chamber is exempt from tax subject to the compliance of terms and conditions specified therein.

7. Library Books:

Library Books purchased during the year are treated as revenue expenditure.

B. NOTES TO ACCOUNTS:

1. Figures relating to previous year are regrouped and/or reclassified and/or rearranged wherever necessary to make them comparable.
2. During the year, no provision is made for contribution towards the Public Trust Administration Fund in view of decision of the Hon'ble Bombay High court in CA Number of 1 of 2009 and PIL Number and 40,1780 and 1864 of 2007, order dt 25.09.2009
